Dr. W. A. Clark Will Retire From Service of County Next March

Supervisors Direct That Physician Must Give All His Time to the Job

PASADENA, Nov. 13.—Suffering from concussion of the brain and still unconscious, Aviator Calbraith P. Rodgers was unable today to tell anything regarding the accident which nearly cost his life at dusk yesterday while he was trying to complete his ocean to ocean flight.

He cannot talk connectedly and there has been nothing but surmise so far to account for the mishap through which he lost control of his aeroplane while flying through the darkness and plunged 125 feet down upon a plowed field near Compton, half way between Los Angeles and Long Beach.

Dr. Mattison said, however, he expected Rodgers to recover. Rodgers is being attended constantly by his wife and mother. No one else has been permitted to see him.

DISJOINTED REMARKS. Disjointed remarks by the injured aviator today indicated that he was trying to avoid high powered trolley wires when his control wires broke and caused the accident. It was dark when he arrived near Compton, and the wires, he said, gleamed like tubes of fluorescent mercury in the light of the Compton station lamps.

He tilted his biplane to an angle of

'Strong Man of China' Returns to Give Counsel to Tottering Throne

Foreigners Are Ordered to Leave Nanking if They Would Save Lives

PEKING, Nov. 13.—Yuan Shi Kai, accompanied by 2000 troops, made a triumphal entry into the capital today. He was driven from the same place in disgrace three years ago.

The news that "the Strong Man of China" had at last been prevailed upon to return and to give the tottering throne the benefit of his counsel leaked out and a vast, but orderly crowd lined the route from the railway station to the temple which had been provided for his residence.

Yuan looked hale and hearty, his appearance belying the recent reports of his physical condition, which had been made an excuse for his delay in obeying the imperial command to come to Peking and assume the responsibility of premier in succession to Prince Ching, which appointment was promulgated in an imperial edict of November 1.

In communications to the government Yuan has expressed his unwillingness to assume office, and whether he could be persuaded to reconsider

VESSEL POUNDS TO PIECES ON ROCKS IN NORTH

Steam Schooner Washington Is Fighting Wind and Waves Near Cape Disappointment, Off the Coast of Oregon

All Efforts to Rescue Passengers and Crew Prove Futile and Little Hope Is Held Out; Life-Savers Await the Opportunity to Throw Out Line

TWO WASHED OVERBOARD AND DROWNED

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 13.—Crippled and drifting in a furious sea before a southeast gale the steam schooner Washington of the Olson & Mahoney line to San Francisco, with forty-eight persons aboard, apparently is doomed to destruction on the beach between Cape Disappointment and North Head, just outside the Columbia river bar. The fate of her twenty-five passengers and crew of twenty-three men is in doubt. Already two of the crew have been washed overboard and drowned, and the life saving crews are not hopeful that any of those on board will be saved.

Every effort to reach the vessel with life lines or boats has failed. Unless she drifts close enough in to permit lines being shot over her there is little chance of rescue. To launch the boats in the boiling sea would be suicidal, and will only be attempted as a last resort.

FLOODED EARLY IN NIGHT. The Washington was flooded early last night in the breakers while attempting to pass over the bar. All night and today she drifted with dragging anchors, within sight of shore and with helpless life-savers watching.

Several tugs which went to the scene from this port were unable to approach close enough to the doomed vessel to render any assistance. The weather is so thick that only occasional glimpses of the tugs can be had from the beach.

The steamer was in a worse position this morning than she was last night when darkness fell and shut her off from the view of the watchers on shore. The only hope for the 48 persons aboard, passengers and crew, was in the bravery of United States Life Saving crews from the Cape Disappointment and Point Adams stations. These men patrolled the beach all night waiting for the vessel to go to pieces or for her to drift close enough to shore to allow them to fire life lines over her.

TUG BOATS AT SCENE.

Two tug boats, the Tatoosh and the Goliah, left Astoria early this morning for the scene of the wreck, but their captains had little hope that they would be able to get close enough to the stranded vessel to afford any aid.

A report from the life-saving station at North Head states that the Washington is drifting rapidly toward North Head and is expected to go ashore in an hour or two. From the fact that she has not shown any signs of smoke, it is believed the Washington is full of water.

In spite of the heavy sea, which is running life-savers are preparing to launch a boat in the hope of picking up any who may be washed from the wreck or jump into the sea. The life guns, equip-

Supreme Court Sounds Death Knell of Beattie

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 13.—The Supreme Court of Appeals today denied the petition for a writ of error by Henry Clay Beattie Jr., convicted of murdering his young wife last July. The decision on the appeal from the judgment of the Chesterfield court which sentenced him to die in the electric chair November 24 is final. Clemency or reprieve by Governor Mann only can save the condemned man.

Two Women and Child Murdered in Brooklyn

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A triple murder was committed today in Brooklyn. Two women, mother and daughter and the child of one of them, were found dead in a dwelling on Park avenue. The father of the child is being searched for by the police.

Shopkeeper and Wife Kill Five; Wound 18 Bandits

VELARDENA, Mexico, Nov. 13.—Francisco Ibarra, a shopkeeper, and his wife, killed five and wounded 18 bandits who attacked the Ibarra store today, before the robbers fled. The bandits were attracted by the guns and ammunition in Ibarra's stock as well as the silver bullion he was reported to have on hand. The storekeeper had warning of their approach and barricaded the doors of the strongly built adobe shop and telephoned to this city for rurales. The attack came before the rurales were more than started to the rescue. Ibarra and Senora Ibarra, both familiar with firearms, crouched behind the small barred windows of the shop and poured a deadly fire on the attackers, who finally fled, leaving their dead and wounded in the street.

Prof. Frenkel Dies At Home in Berlin

Throat Specialist, Consulted in 1910 by Col. Roosevelt, Succumbs in Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 13.—Prof. Bernhard Frenkel, the noted throat specialist, died here today. For many years he had been prominent in the crusade against tuberculosis, and had been a figure in the International Anti-Tuberculosis Congress.

Professor Frenkel was consulted by Colonel Roosevelt in May, 1910, regarding a persistent throat affection which had annoyed the American ex-president during his European tour.

Chee Foo Goes Over to the Revolutionists

SHANGHAI, Nov. 13.—Chee Foo went over to the revolutionists at 3 o'clock this morning. There was no fighting. The rebels took possession of the Taotai's yamen, the telegraph office and the forts.

NANKING, Nov. 13.—The American and other consuls and foreigners under their protection will move out of the city immediately. The commanders of the foreign warships today notified their consuls that they could not protect the lives and property of the foreigners in the city.

FEAR FOR SAFETY OF A FORMER OAKLANDER

Rev. Frank C. Gale and Wife Are in Danger Zone in China.

Since the revolution broke out in China no news has been received from Rev. Frank C. Gale, formerly assistant pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of this city, who, with his wife, Mrs. Arlie Gale, has charge of a missionary school and the Central church at Nan Chang. For the past two and a half years the couple have been stationed there as missionaries under the Methodist Episcopal diocese. They have accomplished excellent results along educational and religious lines.

Three years ago the young pastor left the local church for the missionary field, resigning his position to accept the call to the Orient.

Prior to assuming his new office he studied the Chinese language and customs, and after he had mastered the tongue he went into the work which was assigned to him by Bishop Lewis of Peking.

Rev. Frank C. Gale is a graduate of the University of California, where he made a record for brilliant scholarship. Soon after receiving his degree he was appointed assistant to Rev. George W. White, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church of Oakland. He was very popular with the parishioners, who esteemed him for his integrity of character and intellect.

Mrs. Gale is a graduate physician, and is the medical advisor in the mission school.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Moving picture show promoters received a blow this morning when the Supreme Court of the United States decided that moving pictures based on the scenes of a copyright book may constitute an infringement of copyright or the reserve rights to dramatize.

Anti-Trust Laws Discussed by Taft

President and Attorney-General Go Over Advisability of Legislation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—President Taft today discussed with Attorney General Wickersham the advisability of supplemental anti-trust legislation at the coming session of Congress. The conference related particularly to the likelihood of passing a federal incorporation act.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—Because she disregarded her own safety to save the lives of an Indian woman and her day-old baby, Miss Nellie Francis, a "cow girl" employed by a traveling "wild west" show giving exhibition here, is near death today at a local hospital. Miss Francis, on foot, ran in front of a dozen or more frightened sters and buffaloes which stampeded following one of the performers and bore down on the tent in which the Indian woman and her baby lay. She turned the charge from the tent, but was knocked down by a huge buffalo and before rescuers reached her was badly gored. Her chances for recovery are said to be slight.

Traveling Man's R. markable Scheme

Several years ago I was troubled with Bright's Disease, which worried me a great deal as my father, who had been a long time with the best doctors of Kentucky, Indiana, without relief or cure, died of that dreadful disease. Having been around my father most of the time during his illness, I became familiar with the symptoms of Bright's Disease.

When I had my first attack my face became swollen and all grew black before my eyes and I felt as though there was little hope for me. After seeing several of these attacks I began taking Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, which my wife recommended to me, and noticing some improvement continued its use for one year, never missing one day but taking same as regular as though a physician was prescribing for me.

It is now two years that I discontinued the use of Swamp-Root, as I consider myself completely cured of my trouble, having had no use for a doctor or any other medicine and have been able to resume my position on the road.

I fully believe that had my father taken Swamp-Root in time he would have been alive today and we would have been saved many a big doctor bill.

I believe that if people afflicted with any kind of kidney or bladder disease would take Swamp-Root in time and use it regular, they would cure themselves and save much suffering as well as big doctor bills.

I feel very grateful toward your medicine and never fail to tell what Swamp-Root did for me.

You are at liberty to use this testimony at any time.

Yours very truly,

DR. W. A. CLARK TO LEAVE INFIRMARY

Physician Tenders Resignation to Supervisors to Take Effect March Next.

some one of their faculty appointed, and the contest for favor in the decision of the board promises to be a lively one.

For some time there has been a threatened change in the management of the infirmary, and the proceedings became a matter of record today when Supervisor F. W. Foss introduced the following resolution, which was seconded by Supervisor W. B. Bridge.

RESOLUTION ADOPTED.
"Be it resolved by the Board of Supervisors of Alameda county that from and after the first day of March, 1912, the resident physician, for the county infirmary and hospital of Alameda county be and is hereby required to devote his entire time to the service of Alameda county and is not to engage in private practice."

The resolution carried by unanimous vote of the board, Foss, Bridge, Murphy and Chairman Mullins; absent, Supervisor Kelly.

Dr. Clark, who arrived after the meeting had adjourned, declared that he had no statement to make at the present time in regard to the matter, being satisfied with the proceedings of the board.

Supervisor Foss, who introduced the resolution affecting Dr. Clark's position, said:

"It has been understood between members of the board and Dr. Clark that he would vacate his position at the county infirmary by the first of March. I understood that a number of persons have been seeking the place, but so far I have not talked with any of them."

Immigration Through New York Falls Off

749,642 Aliens Come Into United States as Against 738,094 of Previous Year.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Immigration through the port of New York has shown a falling off. In the annual report of Commissioner Williams for the year ending June 30, made public today, it is stated that during the period 749,642 aliens came into the country, as compared with 738,094 the previous year. Fourteen thousand five hundred aliens were deported during last year.

George J. Blarck, a salesman who previously sought to be excused for business reasons, today declared he was opposed to the infliction of the death penalty and was excused.

T. J. Green, a stock raiser, was accused by the defense.

BALK AT ANSWER.
Willingness or unwillingness to impose the death penalty or circumstantial evidence a hypothetical question at answering which many talesmen thus far have balked, again was in the limelight today when court convened in the trial of James McNamara, indicted for the score of Namara, indicted for the explosion of the Times building here over a year ago.

The prosecution attempted further to learn the views of Talesman Arthur Collins, who was on the stand when court adjourned last Friday and whose examination had entangled itself on the question of accepting circumstantial evidence alone as a basis for a verdict. The state, while pointing out that it was not making public its intentions, but that it nevertheless had a right to jurors who would convict on circumstantial evidence, directed another round of questions to Gribbling. One of the difficulties of eliminating a man who has views against circumstantial evidence has been that the state, through the "circumstantial" clause by which all disqualifications hitherto have been secured, being that which provides for exemption should a talesman entertain "conscientious scruples" against the death penalty in murder cases. Usually counsel have been able to maneuver about in interrogations so as to indicate that a talesman opposed circumstantial evidence, and posed the necessary "conscientious scruples" against capital punishment.

SIXTH WEEK BEGINS.
Today began the sixth week of the trial. Progress toward getting a jury has been slow, but the speed of the last week, when three talesmen were finally sworn in, has encouraged the parties for cause by both sides, has encouraged those who are anxious to hear the evidence to believe that a jury soon will appear on the horizon.

The prisoner, James B. McNamara, is in the courtroom an indifferent spectator. His interest in the monotony proceedings has been casual. In the large enclosure, where the talesmen and Judge Walter Bordwell are gathered, the prisoner also has a chair, which he invariably sits against the wall and chews gum or yawns. There is a white trash can in the rear of the room, where the gaping crowds foregather each day.

Sickness again has made its way into the jury-getting process. A brother, J. B. Seron, passed for cause, is ill and efforts are being made to have him excused on that account.

DARROW TAKES UP CHARGES OF SUBTERFUGE AGAINST STATE

A. Gribbling Retained After Court Has Asked Him Questions; Talesman Bailey Is Challenged for Cause

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—Charges of subterfuge made by Judge Walter Bordwell against the defense in the McNamara murder trial, were taken up by Attorney Clarence S. Darrow at the opening of court today under what he held to be a parallel case and hurled at the State.

An effort by District Attorney John D. Fredericks to reply was cut short.

"You don't need to make any argument on that," the court said and retained A. Gribbling, the talesman under discussion, after asking him a few questions.

Gribbling was challenged at the opening of court because, in a series of answers to glib questions, he would not convict in a capital case on circumstantial evidence. He also said he would. The State challenged him on the strength of the negative statements.

"I will call the attention of your honor to the testimony of the talesman," said District Attorney Fredericks, "which I have gone over carefully."

DARROW ARISES.
"I have gone over it myself," observed the court and Darrow rose.

"Talesman W. N. Frampton and A. C. Winter, both of whom said they did not believe in circumstantial evidence, by retaining me, the State and we had to use up two peremptory challenges on them," he said. "If it is good cause now it is good cause then. The State offers this challenge because it wants to get rid of Gribbling. The evidence is not stronger here than it was then."

"I'll ask the talesman a few questions," said the judge and Gribbling said he would convict if the circumstantial evidence were sufficiently strong.

DISALLOWED CHALLENGE.
"The challenge is disallowed," said the court, smiling. "Now, Mr. Darrow, I don't think you were justified in saying that the State tried to use subterfuge to get rid of this man."

"The defense was charged by your honor with subterfuge in the cases of Frampton and Winter," he said. "A like instance."

The court pointed out that one of the attorneys for the defense practically had admitted that these two men were challenged because they were not wanted and the incident was closed.

Talesman N. P. Bailey was challenged for cause by Attorney Darrow. Bailey said he had read the Los Angeles Times for twenty years and was strongly in sympathy with the union labor movement and believed the Times was blown up by a union bomb."

The State resisted the challenge and told District Attorney Fredericks, who said that he strongly doubted his ability to give a fair trial and Fredericks presently withdrew opposition. Bailey was excused and was followed by F. M. Webb.

SCRUTINIZE McNAMARA.
Assistant District Attorney Bill appeared in court two in the course of the session with men who stood in a little lobby and looked at James B. McNamara, the defendant. They then were taken away. Bill declined to say whether further identifications of the prisoner had been secured, in the opinion of the state, and District Attorney Fredericks said he did not know Hill had been in the room nor what he was there for.

Talesman F. M. Webb was excused because of his personal knowledge of the case, but District Attorney Fredericks said Webb, who was within 100 yards of a bomb which exploded at the home of General Otis, proprietor of the Times, would be called by the state as a witness.

George J. Blarck, a salesman who previously sought to be excused for business reasons, today declared he was opposed to the infliction of the death penalty and was excused.

T. J. Green, a stock raiser, was accused by the defense.

'FREE TEXT BOOKS' LECTURE SUBJECT

Prof. Boone Addresses the Members of Child Welfare League.

Professor Boone, of the department of education of the University of California, addressed the members of the Child Welfare League this afternoon in the Oakland High School gymnasium upon the subject, "Free Text-books." Some months ago the proposition of free text-books was presented to that organization by one of its members, and the league has stood favorably for the issue. Many of the women have pledged themselves to work until the free text-book bill carries.

Mrs. Eleanor Carls, president of the league, called the welfare workers to order today and announced her appreciation to the helpers, who had assisted her in the league's work.

ERROR IS BLAMED FOR OVERCHARGE

City Engineer Dockweiler Once More Decides Against Local Corporation.

MADELINE JIRKOWSKY'S COMPLAINT IS PROVEN

Lengthy Report Made to City Commissioners This Morning.

Through errors in bookkeeping and in meter reading by the Peoples Water Company, a bill of $3 for water was rendered Miss Madeline Jirkowsky for premises at 88 Fairmont avenue, when only 30 cents was owing, according to an opinion filed with the city council by Consulting Engineer J. H. Dockweiler this morning. Dockweiler declares that three separate sets of accounts were committed by the Peoples Water Company in overcharging Miss Jirkowsky. On reading the report of Dockweiler's investigation, the city council authorized City Clerk Frank Thompson to notify the Peoples Water Company and the complainant of the findings of the expert.

SECOND TIME.
This is the second time in the past ten days in which City Engineer Dockweiler has decided against the Peoples Water Company. The first was in the case of Charles Jurgens, who complained when his rates were increased by the arbitrary transfer of his premises from the meter rate to a much higher flat rate, from being about $8 a month difference. Miss Jirkowsky complained of an overcharge to the council, and the matter was referred to Dockweiler. His report follows:

"November 10, 1911. To the Honorable City Council, City of Oakland, California. Sirs:—In the matter of the complaint of Madeline Jirkowsky relative to excessive water bills charged by the Peoples Water Company against the premises at No. 88 Grove street and No. 88 Fairmont avenue, I find as follows:

"On September 29, the date on which her complaint was filed with your honorable body, I received from the Peoples Water Company, covering same points, The Peoples Water Company, replied to this letter October 1, as follows:

Replying to yours of the 29th ultimo:

"Inspector reports high consumption of water at 808 Grove street due to leak in old style toilet in the bathroom. The meter at 808 Grove street was also leaking but has been repaired. He reports meter at 88 Fairmont avenue was overcharged by $3.00. From my investigation I ascertained the following:

"That the charge for No. 808 Grove street was for 100 gallons of water, but the bills rendered by Peoples Water Company against No. 88 Fairmont avenue were as follows:

"May 3 to June 3, current bill $1.50. Paid July 13, 1911.

"June 3 to June 27, current bill $1.20. Previous bill $1.50. Total $2.70. Paid August 13, 1911.

"June 27 to July 26, current bill $1.50. Previous bill $1.20. Total $2.70. Paid September 13, 1911.

"July 26 to August 26, current bill $1.50. Previous bill $1.50. Total $3.00. Paid October 13, 1911.

"Total for period May 3 to June 3, of $1.50 was not paid until July 12, hence when the bill for period ending July 27 (June 3 to June 27) for $1.20 was rendered, it carried the previous month's bill of $1.50, that had not yet been paid.

"The bill for period July 27 to July 26, of $1.50 was not paid until July 12, hence when made out on July 27, it carried the previous month's bill of $1.50, that had not yet been paid.

"The bill for period July 26 to August 26, of $1.50 was not paid until July 12, hence when made out on July 27, it carried the previous month's bill of $1.50, that had not yet been paid.

"The bill rendered October 7, as corrected bill (see letter above) for the two months ending September 27, is correct to the extent of $1.50. The balance of two months upon a minimum meter rate, but it did not give a true statement of the water consumed. The capture of the Peoples Water Company, up to and including September 1, had paid $2.70 in excess of what was actually owed the Peoples Water Company on July 26, 1911.

"The following is taken from the Peoples Water Company's record of No. 88 Fairmont avenue:

"February 2, 1911, meter reading 55,100; amount due $1.50, paid.

"March 1, meter reading 55,200; amount due $1.25, paid.

"April 1, meter reading 55,300; amount due $1.50, paid.

"May 1, meter reading 55,400; amount due $1.50, paid.

"June 1, meter reading 55,500; amount due $1.20, paid.

"July 1, meter reading 55,600 (meter started average bill) $1.20, twice.

"July 26, meter reading 55,700 (new meter, set at 0 average bill) $1.50, paid, twice.

"August 26, meter reading 55,800 (meter over read).

"September 27, meter reading 55,900 (bill for 2 months, $3.00, rendered October 7).

"From May 3 to September 27 the correct bill for No. 88 Fairmont avenue are as follows:

"May 3 to June 3, 1911, $1.50.

"June 3 to June 27, 1911, $1.20.

"June 27 to July 26, 1911, $1.50.

"July 26 to August 26, 1911, $1.50.

"August 26 to September 26, 1911, $1.50.

"Total, $6.00.

"Amounts paid, $3.30.

"July 13, 1911, $1.50.

"August 13, 1911, $1.20.

"September 1, 1911, $1.20.

"Total, $3.90.

"September 26, 1911, bal. due, $2.10.

CONCLUSION.
There were three sets of errors committed by the Peoples Water Company in the account with No. 88 Fairmont avenue, as follows:

"Collecting the water bills for two months twice, months ending June 27 and July 26.

"Charging an erroneous meter bill, owing to over reading of meter.

"Rendering a bill for $3.00 for water for two months, ending September 26, when only $3.30 was due.

JAPANESE AT AMOY.

AMOY, China, Nov. 13.—A Japanese cruiser arrived here today. Warships of Japan have been within the harbor since the Chinese took possession of the harbor because of the distrust felt by the Chinese toward the action, which appeared like Japanese interference.

The Tartar general, Hal-Fong-Ting, has fled to Kulungsu. General Soon Long, who had been held as a hostage in the palace of the Tartar general, appeared today and notified all officials in southern Fukien province to remain at their posts and preserve order.

The women and children of the missionary families have been summoned to Amoy, but the men continue their duties at the mission stations. A report from Chang Chow Fu says the city was taken by the revolutionists last night. Seventy per cent of the population fled. There was a little violence, but much thieving.

RUSSIA ON SCENE.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—A news dispatch from Tien Tsin says that, acting on urgent orders, 1500 Cossacks left Vladivostok today for Peking.

Hong Kong Reported in Hands of Rebels

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Hong Kong is in the hands of the revolutionists and the province of Chi Tai has proclaimed its independence, according to advices today from Shanghai, a local news newspaper. The capture of Peking again is reported. It is reported that as soon as ammunition can be procured from Shanghai, Nanking will be assaulted by the rebels.

A cablegram from Hong Kong says that a body of volunteer soldiers escorted a committee led by Wu Han Min, who is also the acting government head, to Canton today. There was great rejoicing among the people. Imperial officials are said to have looted the public treasury.

The Viceroy of Nan King, who was reported to have been successful in an attempt to commit suicide, has survived, it is reported, and the Tartar General Chung Shu, it is rumored, has killed himself.

A Hong Kong dispatch to the newspaper Chung Shu Tat Po says the revolutionist government in Canton is considering a proposal to subsidize all progressive newspapers.

ROAD CONTRACTOR GIVEN MORE TIME

Complaining that a shortage of freight cars, due to the railroad strike, had delayed the work, the contractor, today asked the supervisors for an extension of ninety days to finish the work. The request was granted.

The Seventh Street Improvement club was allowed $300 by the board to help carry the expenses of the carnival conducted last Saturday night in celebrating the improvements on Seventh street.

A voucher for $121.83 was received from the Oakland Traction Company for its share in the maintenance of the Webster street car bridge during the month of September.

The application in Joe Thomas of Centerville for a Beer license was set for hearing on December 4. The board adjourned until Monday, November 20.

fifty degrees and, shearing away from the dangerous wires, arrived over the field on the Orr ranch, when one of the control wires parted.

WITNESS OF ACCIDENT.

According to Orr, who saw Rodgers fall, the left wing of the aeroplane struck the ground first. The field had been ploughed on the day before and Orr declared that the soft dirt formed a cushion which saved Rodgers from the life of the aviator. Orr cut the canvas of the wrecked wings to reach Rodgers.

The aviator's face was buried in the dirt, the heavy copper fuel tank lay on his neck, and the 180-pound motor had been wrecked from its blocks and thrown against Rodgers' side.

Dr. Mattison said that while the impact had severely bruised the aviator's body, no evidence of any serious internal injuries had yet developed.

Rodgers is only partially conscious at intervals. He continually asks: "What was I trying to do? Where was I going?" The wreckage of Rodgers' aeroplane was removed from the Orr field and taken to Long Beach for repair.

Water Front Alive With Many Signs of Progress; Ships at Docks.

The Pacific Coast Steamship Company's steamer Senator, Captain John Luby, came in early this morning and left on a long haul, where she is picking up 800 tons of freight. Tomorrow at 2 o'clock the Senator will make the first trip to Puget Sound, leaving with her a full cargo of freight and passengers. During her stay on the northern run she made six trips to the Alaskan port of Nome.

The American Hawaiian Steamship Company's big liner St. Helena, Captain Jameson, arrived into last night from Salina Cruz and after leaving her passengers at San Francisco steamed over to this side and laid alongside Long wharf, where she is picking up 1800 tons of freight for Portland.

The little scow schooner Plute, owned by William C. Lawrence, and which is one of the principal scows employed by the A. B. Weeks Co., of this city, for the purpose of carrying cordwood, came very close to being wrecked on the open sea and lost yesterday morning.

Captain John Stanly had a party of electricians out on the bay on his pleasure launch Ceres yesterday. The excursion was in the nature of a fishing party, was a great success, and the fishermen's point of view, as a very good "catch" was made.

Two of the crew of the wrecked steamer Washington were washed overboard and drowned this morning. The life-saving crews have not yet succeeded in getting a line on board the vessel. At 9:45 o'clock the Washington was drifting closer in shore between Cape Disappointment and North Head. TAFT IS SATISFIED WITH HIS TRAVELS Wears Golden Smile of Confidence When He Returns to Capital.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—Glowing with health and showing none of the signs of fatigue, the President, after a result of his 15,000 mile trip, President Taft returned to the White House and immediately began preparations for the hard executive work that awaits him. It was at once apparent that the President's long trip through the west has given him a cheerful view of the political outlook. His friends became aware that the President believed that the Republican party is strengthening itself throughout the country and that the wave of insurgency and democracy had almost spent itself.

While the President would make no comment on the Republican victories in New York and New Jersey, it is known to his friends that he regards those victories as signs of the changing times. Frequent reports came from cities visited by the President that he was taking a gloomy view of the political situation, but these are discredited by Taft's cheerfulness on his return. While he still maintains that his re-election is a matter for the voters to decide, and not a matter for political maneuvering, it is now known that he feels the Republican party has an excellent chance not only to retain control of the executive branch of the government and the Senate, but to regain control of the house.

Taft was particularly well pleased with his reception in San Francisco, saying that the greatness of the city since its rebuilding would surprise those who have not been there in recent years and predicting that the Panama-Pacific exposition will be the most wonderful of its kind that this or any other country has ever known.

TO TAKE RECESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The Supreme Court of the United States will take a recess after announcing opinions next Monday, until Monday, December 4.

BOYS INCLUDED IN NEWS OF ARRESTS

Sunday Round-Up Varied by Jailing of Score of Petty Gamblers.

The usual Sunday round-up of the inebriates, which litters the Monday morning court calendar with small fines and forfeitures was varied yesterday by the arrest of over a score of petty gamblers, two juveniles being included in the list. Frank Ramonti, 15 years old, and John Paulins, aged 14, were arrested by Captain Lynch, Sergeant Walters and Patrolman Sherry while "shooting craps," at Fifth and Linden streets. Charged with gambling, the boys were delivered to the Detention Home.

Ah Joe and ten other Chinese were arrested for gambling at fan tan at 355 Eighth street yesterday afternoon by Sergeant Walters and Patrolman A. Beck and Duane. They were released on $10 bail each. D. Itata and nine Chinese were arrested for fan tan playing at Sixth and Webster streets by Sergeant Walters and a posse of policemen. They were released on bail.

THAW DEFENSE TO BE ADVANCED BY AXTELL

STOCKTON, Nov. 13.—Declaring that S. E. Axtell, editor on trial for killing Chas. Sollars, a Los Angeles capitalist, was mentally irresponsible when he committed the deed A. H. Ashley, leading counsel for the accused, this morning outlined the defense in detail to the jury. Permanent insanity is to be the defense. Ashley then went on to say that the defense would show that Axtell had received serious physical injuries during his life which rendered him incapable of standing any excitement.

The prosecution closed its case shortly before 11 o'clock today. Several witnesses were put on the stand to prove that Sollars had not started the rumors reflecting on Axtell and two local school teachers which the defendant is said to have declared were the prime cause of the shooting.

WIFE OBJECTS TO BROADWAY SHOWS SHOWER BATHS IN SELTZER

Alleged Affinity Objects to Being Kicked byirate Husband.

Alleging that spankings, seltzer baths, a miscellaneous assortment of beatings and varied chastisements were the principal features of a strenuous which her husband subjected her, Mrs. Rosa Knapp will appear in Judge Harris' court tomorrow to further her suit for divorce from William Knapp, commonly known as "Baron" Knapp, and said to be a scion of a prominent family in Germany. Incidentally, an alleged affinity and the kicking of said affinity by the baron on divers and numerous occasions, will also figure in the case.

The Knapps lived at 3101 Champion street, Fruitvale, until Mrs. Knapp moved next door, to the home of a neighbor, Mrs. M. C. Myers, 3101 Champion street, where she is still living, and where the alleged affinity, H. Brinkman, now resides.

Mrs. Knapp says that the first spanking and shower bath followed the return of her liege lord from the station after he had missed his train and was in high ill humor. Mrs. Knapp, according to her recital, was peacefully slumbering and failed to note the return of her husband until she was spanked into wakefulness.

A second shower bath, which was brought into play and Mrs. Knapp had her first seltzer shower bath. She asserts that her husband refused to let her change her soaked nightdress or change the sheets, which were drenched with seltzer water.

Speaking of the alleged affinity, Mrs. Knapp says that Brinkman was merely a table boarder at the Knapp home, rooming at the Meyers residence.

KNAPP'S PLAYFUL WAYS. Other charges made by Mrs. Knapp are that her husband broke up a party at their home by coming home and throwing wine in the faces of the parties at table, causing a stampede on a battery charge, and said that Knapp had developed a habit of kicking him whenever the two men met. Knapp pleaded guilty and was probationed, explaining that the alleged affinity's derisive grins caused the attacks.

During the progress of the brisk domestic war Special Officer M. K. Reid, hired to guard the Knapp home at 3101 Champion street, became involved in the trouble and was accused by Mrs. Knapp of putting handcuffs on her and ejecting her from her own home when she called at the house to secure her paintings and some other personal belongings.

When the case is called in Judge Harris' court tomorrow both sides will be ready for a hard legal fight, though the appearance tomorrow is but the preliminary skirmish, as the case will likely then be set for trial. Mrs. Knapp is to fight for $75 per month alimony and a divorce decree. Knapp will fight to protect his property interests, but will not fight the application of his wife for a decree of divorce. Knapp is 20 years his wife's senior and lays their trouble to the disparity in their ages. He says that once when he called his wife home from the Myers residence, and the company of Brinkman, that she called back that she was not cut out for an old man.

Marriage has long been the topic of much discussion, public and private, and the various views on the same have long been at variance with each other, but it remained for the moving picture camera to present a topic of this title that has caused no end of discussion and favorable comment and has done more for betterment than any one thing yet brought to light. This particular picture has been shown in all the large cities of the east and has been viewed by among others the clergy of the various denominations and they have all endorsed it most heartily and some have even gone so far as to recommend to their flock that they go and visit the theater at which it was being shown.

This particular picture is being shown in Oakland today for the one day only and only at the Broadway theater. It is a Reliance masterpiece well acted and staged by their stock company.

There is another picture being shown there today that has also created quite a much talk and that is "Sinner's Sinners," a gripping drama of life in a great city and a copy of this picture has been shown daily in New York at the headquarters of the "Child's Welfare League."

A new western picture taken in the famous "El Cajon Canyon" in southern California and entitled "The Trail of the Moonshiners" is also on today's program, and some several others of more than passing notice.

"The Night Riders of Tennessee and Kentucky," a thrilling story of the doing of those famous whitecaps of that much disturbed country is a big two day special feature announcement for next Wednesday and Thursday at the Broadway. This picture is in two reels and is two thousand feet in length and will, no doubt create quite a deal of excitement in this city.

The music at the Broadway by Jacques Tillman, on the violin and Miss Nora Adams on the piano, is most favorably spoken of by the patrons.

AUTO FIRE ENGINE OBEYS SPEED LIMIT

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 13.—When an alarm summoned the fire department to a burning lodging house on Seventh street, yesterday, the auto machines, of which the department has several, scrupulously obeyed the ordinance limiting speed to 12 miles. In the meantime property that might have been saved by the quicker arrival of the fire fighters was destroyed.

The low speed was the result of a ruling by Judge Putnam in the police court. He held that the law against speeding applies to all, including doctors hastening to the dying and to fire apparatus rushing to a conflagration. Commissioner Dodson ordered his department to observe the ordinance to the letter, the result being this afternoon's anomaly of fire engines not making their best time to a fire.

NEIGHBORHOOD MASS MEETING TO BE HELD

The Child's Welfare League announces its fifth neighborhood mass meeting of the season at the Prescott school, corner of Campbell and Ninth streets, West Oakland, tomorrow evening.

Through the co-operation of Principal J. H. Addicott of the Prescott school and Principal S. P. Means of the Cole school, a large attendance of parents from both schools is anticipated. Mrs. Nellie Nelson, chairman of the neighborhood mass meetings committee of the league, announced as speakers Miss Ethel Carlsie, "Organizing Child's Welfare League in Every County," Probation Officer Charles J. Dodson, "The Difference Between Detention Homes and Juvenile Schools," Dr. Florence Sylvester, "What Oakland is Doing for the Health of Her School Children," Principal J. E. Addicott, "Problems of the Prescott School." Music will be furnished by the school children.

This is the second meeting this season in Oakland; two have been held in Berkeley and one in Alameda.

INFIRMARY FACES SHORTAGE IN FOOD

Grocery Firm Fails to Live Up to Contract, Is Charge of Board.

Through failure of the grocery firm holding the contract for supplying the county infirmary with flour, sugar and other foodstuffs to make delivery, the institution has faced a shortage for the last few days and upon the matter being called to the attention of the board of supervisors this morning by Supervisor D. J. Murphy, it developed that the Boston Grocery Company, which was several months ago awarded the contract on their lowest bid, would be unable to carry it out and had ceased delivering its goods to the infirmary.

Upon the advice of Deputy District Attorney Leon Clark, the clerk was instructed to serve notice upon the company to fill requisitions of the infirmary storekeeper within twenty-four hours and in the event of its failure to do so, purchase the goods from the open market and notify the concern's bondsmen that they would be liable for the purchase price over and above the quotations in the contract.

FURNISHED $3000 BONDS. The company furnished $3000 in bonds at the time the contract was let. Opposite to the board being awarded the Boston Grocery Company was made at the time by members of the board, they not being satisfied that the firm was responsible. Attorneys for the grocery company, however, insisted that the contract should be made according to the lowest bid. The board then ordered the company to be forced to rely on the bondsmen.

Other bidders complained that the prices made by the concern were so low that trouble would result sooner or later and their prophesies came true this week.

A resolution was passed by the board today calling for bids for constructing the new $5000 dormitory at the infirmary. December 4 was set as the date for opening and awarding the bids.

SENT TO ROCKPILE. John Castro was sentenced to spend 30 days on the city rock pile by Judge Mortimer Smith this morning for threatening to kill his wife. It was shown by the testimony of Mrs. Castro that the defendant had done nothing to support the family for some months, and that he was habitually under the influence of liquor. He had attacked his wife on several occasions and his threats kept her in terror.

BEGIN IT TODAY

That good old saying, "A stitch in time saves nine," is proved over and over in our daily life.

For example, when you begin to feel out of sorts, don't want to eat, and don't seem as strong as usual, if you would begin right away to use Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, you could easily put yourself in good trim again with one bottle, or less. But when you are sick and grow worse all the time, it is bound to take more time. We just got a letter from Mrs. Mary Glynn of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., who says: "When my health became rundown last March I took prompt action to improve it and was told that Vinol was the best thing to build me up. Using one bottle of Vinol has made me well and strong again."

Don't put it off another day. If you feel the need of more strength and better blood, or if one of your family is weak and sickly, Vinol will give renewed strength and energy. If it does not, we will give you back your money. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Cal.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 13.—All preliminary arrangements for the annual meeting of the Trans-Mississippi Commercial Congress here tomorrow have been completed and hundreds of delegates already are in the city. Features of the opening day will be addresses by Nelson W. Aldrich, chairman of the national monetary commission; Henry L. Shinn, Secretary of War; G. M. Hitchcock, United States senator from Nebraska; and W. E. Borah, United States senator from Idaho. The improvement of the inland waterways of the country will be considered this year. Richard Saxe Jones of Seattle, personal representative of Governor Hays of Washington, is already here waging a campaign to land the congress for Seattle in 1912, the year of the Panama-Pacific Exposition in San Francisco.

'KIDNAPED BY MISTAKE,' CHILD RETURNS HOME

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—"Kidnaped by mistake" is the theory advanced to explain the return to his parents last night of a 4-year-old Pietro Quatrana, found wandering on a Brooklyn street with his father's name and address pinned to his coat. The child has been missing since August 21. The fact that the father received none of the usual "black hand" letters demanding ransom leads him to believe that the child was taken for some other man's son.

VISIT OF WELSH CHOIR AWAITED

Noted Singers Coming Here to Display Talent at Macdonough Theater.

Music lovers are looking forward to the treat which is in store for them on Wednesday evening, November 23, when the Royal Welsh Ladies Choir, under the leadership of Madam Hughes-Thomas, will be at the Macdonough theater. Mrs. Thomas has been remarkably successful as a teacher of music, and pupils attend the Beethoven School of Music in Windsor Place, Cardiff, from all parts of Glamorgan and Monmouthshire. Hundreds of voices have been trained by her.

The Royal Welsh Ladies' Choir is unique, being a fully equipped collection of women singers, with a woman as conductor who directs her chorus with dignity and intelligence. The choir has several unusually clever soloists. Miss Marianne Squire, soprano, who has a very beautiful voice of big volume and wide range, will sing several times and the three contraltos, Miss Megan Harries, Miss Alice M. Lewis and Miss Nansi Langdon have clear, rich tones.

It is the custom of this choir to sing all Welsh music in the vernacular and the secret of their great success is largely due to the fact that they feel everything they sing and as each member of the choir is a soloist it would be possible for twenty different programs to be given in one evening.

SAM BERNARD TICKLES HIS AUDIENCE AT MACDONOUGH

MISS NELLA BERGEN (top), with Sam Bernard, and MISS ANNA WHEATON, also at Macdonough.

(By DEO LEVY.)

If Sam Bernard made claim to being no more than a democratic comedian, we could rate him among the mighty giggle-getters. But, besides that and in conjunction with it, he is not a follower of tradition and he is not uncouth. Allah, be tickled to death! The world and newspaper reviews are full of uncouth and uncouth musical farces and there are several score worshippers at the shrine of the hackneyed. But where is there a democratic comedian? By the which we would ask, where, oh, where exists another star who would not be "the whole show" and trample talents of his chief assistants under foot?

Nowhere! Bernard deigned to arrive in our midst last night. He came from Milwaukee—that is to say, he came in "He Came From Milwaukee," which is one of those combinations of lace, life thread and hill, know as a musical comedy. It is a good musical comedy; neither great nor inspiring, but good and a sufficient excuse for everything that happens.

Much does.

IS SOMETHING NEW.

We are glad Bernard saw fit to tear himself away from his throne on the Great Tight Way. He came just in time to rescue the Dutchman of the stage from obscurity and to prove that all is not comedy that stutters. There are some scores (correct) of "Dutch comedians. With the exception of four or five, they are mere assassins of the queen's English. Bernard is wiser than they. He realizes that the day has died for the mere mangler of the dictionary and that to earn butter for his breakfast rolls he must be something more. Therefore he is. Where others Teutonized their English, he Anglicizes the Dutch. And the result thereof is an endless chain of tripping, stumbling, hesitating Teutonisms that pile laugh on giggle, and shrike on laugh, et cetera, ad infinitum.

Several persons are announced as responsible for the book, lyrics and music. The result is proof that four or five heads are better sometimes than two. To be sure, Penelope, we agree there's nothing much to it. It is a musical comedy. But it gives even the modest violet who are among these present preference to distinguish themselves. Therefore "is an unusual musical comedy."

HERE IS THE "PLOT."

Must we outline the traditional excuse for a plot? We must, else this would not be a dramatic review. Here goes:

The story tells how Herman Von Schnellenein, Milwaukee brewer, is taking his first European trip and falls in with the Duke of Zurich, whose country is torn by internal dissension, and who is traveling incognito. Von Schnellenein is prevailed upon to assume the role of a duke. Complications follow fast. An ambitious American mother is determined to have her daughter wed the bogus ruler, in spite of the young woman's dislike for the crude youton who hails from Milwaukee and her strong preference for the real duke. Von Schnellenein boldly invades Zurich, where he is seized as a spy and condemned to death, only to be rescued in the nick of time and to have honors heaped upon him.

The end comes as suddenly as could be wished by the writer of any musical affair of the kind, the curtain falling with everybody in everybody's arms, as per usual.

MANTLE OF FAME IS DUE.

Anna Wheaton is prancing merrily along the road to fame and is due to arrive at the end of the season. She is a slightly, sprightly person who evidently is glad she is alive and wants everyone to know it. If the fearful grind of the stage has dulled her appreciation of the joys of life, she simulates, or coming, as Betty Winthrop, who gallops through the evening with Billy Gaston. Gaston's vocalisms may be feminine, but his dancing is masculine originality itself. Nella Bergen is Leska Czecheny, a strenuous personage, whose chief call is to pull Bernard's Herman von Schnellenein to pieces, literally. The role is a barren one, one song being an oasis on a desert of possibilities. George Baldwin as the Duke, and Louise Mink as Constance Harvey, are called upon to spread the honey. The remainder of the principals are well cast in more or less thankless roles. The possession of the chorus, for the most part, of the necessary qualifications and those who do not are well-trained in the art of wielding the grease paint. There is also that abomination, a long-skirt row, as much out of place in a musical comedy as a codfish in Death Valley.

TO SUM IT UP.

There is no excuse in the world for your staying away from the Macdonough

GOVERNOR MAKES STRONG DENIAL

Challenges Statements Alleged to Have Been Made by F. G. Sanborn.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 13. — Governor Johnson has issued a signed statement challenging statements attributed to F. G. Sanborn in connection with his resignation from the state fish and game commission. During the term of office of the commission, Sanborn had anything to do with the trouble, and declared no other reason than his inability to get along amicably with other members of the commission.

Johnson denies that he ever interfered with the affairs of the commission. His statement follows:

"The reasons for the resignation of Sanborn as fish and game commissioner, as stated in Sunday's Call, are untrue, and nobody knows this better than Sanborn. Sanborn resigned because his fellow commissioners were not removed."

CITES STANCE.

"Some months ago," he quipped with Commissioner Connell, and then said he would resign if Connell were not removed. Recently he quarreled with Commissioner Newbert, and he and Newbert have engaged in a torrid correspondence.

"Thursday he came here and related his difficulties with the commissioners to me, and I explained to him that his resignation would be a disgrace to the state. I advised him to go to the office of the governor and make a suggestion of an appointment, provided the individual were competent to a petty clerical position with the commission. Even this one request was withdrawn."

Neither Sanborn, Babcock nor any other man can say I have in any fashion, politically or otherwise, interfered with the commission, or have connected with any man connected with the commission, even in his private life, should permit such an intimation to go unchallenged. I am even more unfortunate than Sanborn should permit himself to be the instrument of newspaper malice."

INVENTS PROCESS FOR OPAL MAKING

Question Is, Will Discovery Bring Inventor Good or Bad Luck?

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 13. — After working patiently for fifteen years, never for a moment forgetting his cherished ambition, William Rose, a lawyer of Independence, Mo., has discovered a secret process for manufacturing opals of the precious variety.

About all that he will tell of the process is that the opals are made of silica. He has known for a long time how to make the jewels, he says, but only recently discovered how to inject the fire into them. The essence is there, but can only be seen under a glass. The inventor says, however, it is now only a matter of a short time until he will bring the colors to the surface.

PROWLER IS SCARED AWAY BY ORIENTAL

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13. — A burglar who entered the residence of Dr. E. J. Orella, 2325 Pierce street, through the front door, which had been left open, was frightened off early yesterday morning by a Chinese servant, who, while going up stairs on an errand, encountered the intruder as he was preparing to ransack the living rooms of the physician. Patrolman E. E. Lloyd was notified a few moments after the thief had escaped into the street, but a search of the neighborhood failed to disclose any trace of the intruder.

While riding on an Ellis street car at Fourth and Townsend, Fred von Borstel, a saloon man, suddenly found that his pockets had been picked of $200 in gold coin, which he was carrying to his place of business.

A Complete Exposition of Bedroom Furniture

OUR displays of the newest styles in bedroom furniture are the most extensive we have ever shown. Another such presentation, we are confident, is not within the present possibilities of any other organization.

The growth of our business has made this possible—a growth that has more than kept pace with the steady, increasing demand of home owners for furniture and furnishings of quality—that better kind which possesses a distinctive style and character, and which supplies a refinement and true comfort that makes home mean more than a mere word.

The pictures show one of many new and moderate priced suits in mahogany, consisting of B.E.D. full size; BUREAU, 54 inches wide, with French plate mirror, 41 x 29; CHIFFONIER, 39 1/2 inches wide; TOILET TABLE, 44 inches wide, with triplicate mirror, center, 13 1/2 x 21 1/2; each end, 9 1/2 x 19 1/2; there are dust-proof partitions between drawers.

FOREIGNERS IN NO DANGER AT TRIPOLI

Officers of Chester Certain That City Is Safe for Time Being.

MARSEILLES, France, Nov. 13.—Officers of the American cruiser Chester, which arrived from Tripoli Saturday, are unanimous in the opinion that foreigners are in no danger there. They say that during their stay at Tripoli the Turkish batteries located east of the city were directing ineffective fire against the Italian warships in the roadstead. The officers think the Italians control the situation in Tripoli and are advancing slowly into the interior. The cholera situation in the city is bad, but apparently the epidemic is not serious among the Italian forces.

MONEY LEAVES BANQUET WHEN NEGRO ATTENDS

CHICAGO, Nov. 13. — Hernando D. Money, former senator from Mississippi and member of the National Monetary commission, hurried from a banquet given here by the Western Economic society a few minutes after the banqueters were seated.

When Money saw a negro sitting directly in front of him he grew angry. Informed that the negro was a member of the society he left the banquet hall.

At his hotel later Money said he left the banquet because he was troubled with neuralgia.

"It is rumored you went because of the presence of the negro," was suggested.

"I refuse to be cross examined on that topic," he replied.

Professor Marshall, the society's secretary, said the negro was not a member of the society.

BURGLAR SENTENCED.

PUTS AN END TO STOMACH MISERY

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn or Dyspepsia Go in Five Minutes.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapiesin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of Indigestion or Stomach Trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a distressed, out-of-order stomach five minutes afterward.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lay like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Ask your Pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diapiesin, and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for stomach trouble because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is at your drug store, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin contain more than sufficient to cure any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other Stomach Trouble.

AX WOUNDS PROVE FATAL TO WOMAN

Mrs. Cooper, Hacked by Husband, Dies After Suffering Five Days.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—After five days of suffering, and after showing a marvelous vitality and a wonderful clinging to life, Mrs. Annie Cooper, who was hacked by her husband, John Edward Cooper, a contractor, last Wednesday, died at St. Mary's hospital at 3:30 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Cooper suffered five compound fractures of the skull from the blows of an ax in the hands of her spouse, who arose, as though in a nightmare, attacked her and cut his throat with a razor, dying an hour later. The tragedy occurred in the early morning hours, and before attempting the life of his wife Cooper lifted his little daughter, Lillian, from her bed in the same apartment and carried her outside. He attempted to shoot his wife with an automatic revolver, but on its falling to go off he grabbed up a father's ax. Mrs. Cooper is survived by three daughters, the eldest of whom is 23 years old.

CHINESE GAMBLERS FLEE BEFORE RAIDING POLICE

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—Chinatown was stricken with terror last night when a squad of police, led by Assistant Chief Schuetzler, simultaneously raided eight places and arrested 150 Chinese who were found gambling. The Mongolians were said to be engaged at fan tan and bungalow. As soon as the presence of the police in the district became known, frightened Chinese ran through the streets, giving the alarm. Front and rear doors were attacked by the police in order to prevent the escape of any of the gamblers.

BELL BILL IS IMPORTANT FROM MANY STANDPOINTS

J. FRANK BURKE and company in "The Value of a Dollar," at the Bell Theater.

When Captain J. A. Brown, of Portland discovered his son working amidst a tangle of high voltage wires at the top of a telegraph pole and beckoned the young man to come down, the retired sea-dog spoiled a natural electrician to make a playwright and mighty promising actor.

Melville Brown, appearing at the Bell theater this week in "The Value of a Dollar," was the young man who coolly risked electrocution, and at the request of his parent concluded to abandon the spiked boots, and lay claim to succession to some of the abandoned shoes of the great Thespians who have passed on. The old sea-faring man was later to furnish the inspiration for the thimble sketch Brown Jr., was to write and which has been received as one of the best things to come along the Sullivan & Connelley circuit for many seasons.

WOMANLESS PLAY.
"The Value of a Dollar" is a womanless play, but much of its heart interest centers around a scapegrace son, the wife of the latter and a little child, and in that respect makes a strong appeal to the feminine portion of every audience. Its comedy is sufficiently plentiful to keep interest in the plot at the boiling point until the final curtain is rung down.

The playlet was written by Brown while engaged on one of his long tramps through Oregon, and while on a vacation following a long season as a member of the Belasco company at Los Angeles. With a pack and gun, the 23-year-old author actor set out from Portland for Tillamook bay. As he trailed along through the big timber of his native state the ideas of the plot came to him as an inspiration. Brown used up a notebook, and when he reached his destination the most of the splendid little play appeared on paper sacks and wrappings of his food parcels.

J. Frank Burke, who carries the leading character in "The Value of a Dollar," is one of the prominent young actors of the United States. He first attracted attention by his work as a member of Maude Adams' all star production of "As You Like It," given in the open air at Berkeley with Florence Roberts' comedy success with Florence Roberts' company of players, and is credited with being the best "The Great John Granton" who ever attempted the part.

COSTLY PRODUCTION.

One of the largest and most costly productions to appear here is the "Aristo Mysteries," which is headlined at the Bell Theater. The piece carries 10 people and has a carload of scenery. It embraces several things in one. Many of the most famous masterpieces of the world are reproduced by living subjects. It is positively the most elaborately and costly production to tour in the circuit. It recedes with the spectacular, both in bewildering electrical effects and stage mechanism. A rare treat is in store for those who love the swagging singing comedian, with his funny songs and his graceful dances. It one enjoys all that is new and dignified they will enjoy Fraeman and Dunham, two young men with powerful voices, good clothes and a grist of popular melodies.

REA VAUDEVILLE.

Hoey and Moe are turning out the real stuff in vaudeville. They have appeared here before and the fact that they have been booked a second time leaves no room for doubt as to the kind of an impression they made previously. Their comedy is of the mile-a-minute variety, and in their new idea, "The Lady and

SAVE YOUR LEAD PENCILS AND CONSERVE FORESTS

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 13.—That 13,000,000 feet of lumber is thrown into waste-paper baskets every year is the statement made here in a lecture by Prof. B. C. Haller, head of the botany department at Central high school. This enormous waste results, he said, from discarding partly used lead pencils.

"Seventy-three million feet of lumber is used in the manufacture of pencils every year in the United States," he declared. "At least half of each pencil is thrown away because it has poor lead or is too short. Think how the conservation of our forests would be promoted if every person would be more careful in the use of pencils."

To Keep Oilcloth Like New

Oilcloth should not be swept with a straw broom or scrubbed with a stiff brush. Instead, sweep with a soft hair brush and wipe off with lukewarm water in which has been dissolved a teaspoonful of Gold Dust washing powder and rinse with clear, warm water. Where oilcloth is losing its shiny surface, wash as above, then dissolve a little ordinary glue in a pint of hot water. At night go over the whole carefully with a flannel dipped in glue water. Choose a dry day and by morning the glue will be hard; it will give a fine gloss and make the oilcloth wear much longer.

Her Groom," wherein songs, dances and clever lines predominate, they score heavily as they did before. Their new offering is most favorably received by the numerous Bell patrons.

Harry Bouton and company in "Straight and Crooked Magic" provoke the big laughs of the bill. Harry Bouton is a clever trickster. He has new ideas, new tricks, new sensations and many crooked pieces of work which he very deftly explains. He has also a natural gift of talking and joking while his work is being carried on. All his illusions, that seem beyond the power of skill are exposed to the audience in a most laughable manner. One time you will marvel at his cleverness and the next when he exposes the trick, you'll say, "How simple."

Green, Wilbur and Green are topnotch musical artists who sing and play their various instruments in a manner to meet with genuine approval.

Oakland Aviator Will Try to Blaze Air Path for Future Generations.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 13.—J. C. ("Bud") Mars, the well-known Oakland aviator, is in Sacramento attempting to finance an aeroplane flight of indeterminate length, with the main object of crossing the Sierra Nevada mountains. Mars recently met Robert G. Fowler, who failed to cross the Sierras in a Wright biplane, and gained valuable information from his rival. According to Mars, Fowler started at the wrong time, as the shifting air currents which Fowler met are not present in the Sierras during the early winter.

SAN MATEO, Nov. 13.—Some one had a ride in style around San Mateo yesterday, and the police and Thomas A. Driscoll's coachman would like to know who it was. An alarm was sent through San Mateo county. Two hours later the coachman returned to A street and the horse and trap were back.

GALLANT LAWYER SCORES WITH PIE

Frank Powers Does Fast Work in Feeding Fair and Famished Friend.

SAN MATEO, Nov. 13.—Frank H. Powers, the San Francisco attorney, furnished San Mateo with its flavor of the intercollegiate football game Saturday. Powers made a 110 yard run and a successful "try" carrying a chicken pie.

Powers was a passenger on one of the special trains that left San Francisco at noon bound for Palo Alto. The train stopped at San Mateo for two minutes and Powers, with his overcoat, a dish-washer and the second cooked roast, rushed to the station.

"I want something to eat, quick," shouted Powers.

The proprietor, three waiters, a dishwasher and the second cooked roast, rushed to the station.

Powers espied a man at a table eating what is technically known as an "individual chicken pie."

"I'll take that," Powers said.

"I'll be glad if you will," said the man. "I want it myself."

"Then bring me another," Powers ordered.

Over at the station, the engine bell was ringing. "Get on the train who is famished. I want the pie for her."

The proprietor, three waiters, a dishwasher and the second cooked roast, rushed to the station.

Powers threw his overcoat down on a chair and a $5 piece on the counter.

"I'll return with my change and coat as he bolted for the door with his pie in his hand."

The train was pulling out. Powers reached it as its speed was increasing. A car window opened and a pair of white-gloved hands reached the pie.

"Thank you," said a woman.

Then Powers returned to the restaurant, picked up what was left of his $5 and his overcoat and went back to the station to await the next train.

FLEES WHILE ON WAY TO PRISON

E. McLaughlin Escapes From Guard in Saloon on Water Front.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Sentenced to serve three years in San Quentin for embezzlement committed in Los Angeles, James E. McLaughlin, aged 30 years, who had been booked at the city prison over night while en route to the penitentiary, yesterday eluded Officer L. D. Rich, who had been sent to take the man to the prison, and made his escape, despite a long search made by detectives and policemen from the Harbor station who were detailed to assist Rich.

McLaughlin had been a tractable prisoner all the way from the south and Rich had begun to trust him. Both arrived here Saturday just too late to get transportation to San Quentin and Rich decided to leave his prisoner in the city jail until 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

Rich called for McLaughlin on time and the man was turned over to the constable, who promptly started for the water front to catch a boat. They arrived with plenty of time to spare and McLaughlin induced Rich to go into a saloon on the corner of Market and East streets.

BOLTS THROUGH DOOR.
Rich went to wash his hands, taking his prisoner with him, and he no sooner had turned his back when McLaughlin bolted out through the door, slamming it and locking it behind him, and then ran out into East street and disappeared before any one realized that anything was wrong.

Locked in the lavatory Rich shouted for aid, and J. Welsh, the proprietor of the saloon, who had been quickly released him. Then Rich told his story, and with the co-operation of several policemen, a search was begun. Various clues furnished by pedestrians who had seen the man running away failed to lead to the escaped prisoner, and Rich, frantic, asked the services of detectives. James Mackey and Thomas Canton were detailed to aid in the search, but were unable to locate the fugitive.

McLaughlin is described as being 5 feet 3 inches tall, weighing 135 pounds, light complexioned, smooth shaved and dressed in brown clothes. He had no money, and unless he had friends in the city probably will be recaptured before long.

Rich probably will be forced to face charges of negligence when he returns to Los Angeles, even if the man is caught.

DENOUNCES SYSTEM OF BAIL AND FINES

"The system of bail and fines in our criminal courts is simply a survival of imprisonment for debt, and is a distinction between the rich and the poor. With more democratic and humane ideas in government it will go, never to return," said Probation Officer Russel in his lecture on "Out Door Life" last evening at the Y. M. C. A. building, in East Oakland, on "The Deeper Meaning of the Juvenile Court Movement."

"In the juvenile court bail and fines have already disappeared, and the juvenile court is the entering wedge for the reformation of the whole system of criminal procedure and administration. If a child needs to be kept in the detention home it is done for what is best is kindest, and we have never failed to convince parents of this. Just imagine what a decent father should have the country over if there were no fines or bail money, and if the jails were built for the accommodation of rich offenders as well as the poor and friendless."

COUNCIL TO LEND AID TO SEVENTH STREET FETE

Plans for Carnival Are Placed Before Commissioners and Unofficial Approval Given; Will Be Held New Year's Eve

Plans for a big electric carnival to be held New Year's Eve on Seventh street from Bay to Fallon streets, to celebrate the improvement of Seventh street were laid before the city council this morning by a committee from the Seventh Street Improvement Club. A request for financial aid was filed with the council and will probably be granted, as the club plans to co-operate by spending several thousand dollars on the huge electric display.

The Seventh Street Improvement Club was largely responsible for gaining from the Southern Pacific Company the promise to pave the street in return for the franchise. The work will be complete and the electric Seventh street service will be in commission by December 20.

The co-operation of other civic and commercial organizations will be sought for the celebration. The matter was laid over and referred to commissioner of Finance and Revenue, John Forrest.

Jas. McElroy for the club addressed the council as follows:

"We have been reading that this city wishes to attract whippersnappers to Oakland. We feel that the carnival will assist in developing the commercial side of the city."

"The Seventh Street Improvement plans to hold a big electric carnival, something that has never before been held in this city. This festival will celebrate the opening of the electric system in Seventh street by the Southern Pacific Company and the paving of the street."

"We plan to decorate the street from Bay to Fallon streets. There will be electric floats and displays of various kinds. There is nothing cheap about this club. We worked hard for this improvement, and now we will work hard to make this festival a success. We will spend over $2500 or more on this carnival."

LOCAL FACTORIES INCREASING FAST

As High as 80 Per Cent Growth Recorded by U. S. Census Report.

The extent of Oakland's manufactures has been the subject of an investigation by Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce and has brought to light the interesting fact that the city's industrial growth in that direction within the past few years has been remarkable, an increase in the number of the city's factories of 80 per cent being reported within the past five years. This is according to the federal census report.

The report in question is for the year 1909 and comparison is made with that of 1904. In addition to the large increase in the number of factories within that time there has been an increase of 282 per cent in the amount of capital invested; 150 per cent in the value of the output; 151 per cent in the amount paid out for wages, and 125 per cent in the average number of wage earners employed.

A comparison with the report for San Francisco for the same time shows that the city has the better of the matter, for in that city there has been a decrease of 20 per cent in the number of manufacturing establishments; an increase in the cost of materials of nearly one per cent; a decrease in the salaries and wages paid of four per cent; an increase in the miscellaneous expenses of five per cent; a decrease of the value of products of four per cent; a decrease in the value added by manufacture of products less cost of material of eight per cent; a decrease in the average number of wage earners employed during the year of twenty-seven per cent.

MURDER ATTEMPT CASE DISMISSED

Mrs. Johnson Not to Stand Trial for Shooting Her Son-in-Law.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The case against Mrs. Katherine Johnson, who shot her son-in-law a month ago at the corner of Twenty-third and Mission streets, was dismissed in Police Judge Sullivan's court this morning, and the second chapter of the tragedy in the life of Helen Whitson De Lorme was terminated.

Helen De Lorme married her present husband, Henry De Lorme, in Santa Cruz following the latter's acquittal on a charge of being a white slave, the wife being the complaining witness. De Lorme is a bartender and the young couple went to live at 1949 Webster street. Mrs. Johnson, the mother of the girl, became imbued with the idea that De Lorme was mistreating her daughter, and fired two shots at him, one of which took effect. The injury was not serious and today, when the case was called, the young man refused to prosecute.

Helen Whitson De Lorme was called as a witness by Detective McGrady and broke down on the stand, tearfully protesting that she could not remember the warrant against her mother. After listening to the husband and wife, the court dismissed the case.

War Secretary Favors Centralizing Troops

Suggests That Smaller Army Posts Be Abandoned to That End.

LEAVENWORTH, Kans., Nov. 13.—"Generals in command of our army are not well enough acquainted with their men," said Henry L. Stimson, secretary of war, who, with Major General Leonard A. Wood, arrived here today to inspect the Postoffice worth post. "In the Spanish-American war commanders went to the front without ever having seen their subordinate officers," he said. "Our smaller posts must be done away with and more men mobilized in one place. It takes too long to get the fighting force of this country together. And when the men get together they are not acquainted."

Mr. Stimson said that after his tour of inspection he would be ready to announce what posts should be abandoned and what ones should be enlarged to accommodate the centralizing movement.

RAZOR AND KNIFE USED ON NEWSPAPER MAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—While protecting two women in the Cave dance hall at an early hour this morning W. T. According to Mallabar, Walters and Burns became involved in an argument with the woman and threatened them. Mallabar intervened and the pair turned on him, knocking off his glasses and Walters drawing a knife and Burns a razor. Breaking from them Mallabar ran to the door and blew his police whistle. Officers Mullin and Tracy pursued and captured Walters and later Policeman Balletto caught Burns in Bartlett alley.

Leaving a note stating that he was tired of living because he was jilted by a girl, James Rolfe of San Francisco committed suicide last night in a room he had rented earlier in the day at the Clarendon house in Seventh street, by shooting himself through the head. The body has been removed to the morgue, and the authorities are making an attempt to discover his relatives, that they may be notified of the affair.

Rolfe rented a room from M. Comas, proprietor of the lodging house, yesterday morning. Nothing was heard of the man after he was jilted by the girl. Comas was alarmed last night by the sound of the discharge of a revolver. He broke down the door of the room and found Rolfe dead on the floor. A brief note stated that he was tired of living.

Forced Out of Our Oakland Store

Every Piano In Our Stock To Be Sacrificed for a Quick Cleanup—Terrific Smashing of Prices

We have been notified that we must get out of our store by December 15th. The Eils Furniture Company, who have taken the lease, insist that the store be vacant by that day. With no other store available down town this simply forces us to sacrifice our stock and get out.

The forced sale of the magnificent stock of Pianos and Player Pianos which we carry in Oakland means a terrific smashing of prices. It means that we must reduce the price of every piano here to a point where every pianoless family will feel it a duty to buy, and at once.

We have reduced the prices. We've slashed, cut and chopped the prices until they no longer represent even wholesale cost. Positively every instrument in our entire store is included in the reductions. Nothing has been reserved or excepted.

We'll sell good Pianos for as little as $45, $65, $88, $97, $122. Pianos that you would be glad to buy ordinarily for $425 and $450 you can now secure at $227 and $234. Player Pianos that would be sold ordinarily for $650 are now $327, and for $427 you can buy magnificent $850 Players that any home can be proud to own. Magnificent uprights that sell at $575 and $600 are now $307 and $315. Organs for as little as $20.

If you are ever to have a piano, right now is your time to get it. Remember, we have only a short time in this store, so don't delay.

We will keep open evenings during Closing Out

Hold Men Up on Street, Pilfer House and Pick Pockets on Sunday.

Masked thugs held up R. Miller of Eleventh and Madison streets about 11 o'clock last night in a dark portion of the street on Webster near Harrison. The men were armed and Miller made no resistance when they searched him and took 22 in coin from his person. Miller was unable to give a description of his assailants.

Horace Batchelder of 440 Sixty-second street, met two entertaining young men coming from Berkeley on a Telegraph avenue car. They engaged him in conversation, and gave a vivid description of the way in which California defeated Stanford. So vivid was the description, and so vivacious the raconteurs that Batchelder failed to observe that one of the two was going through his pockets. After the pair had left the car, he found that a $10 gold piece and $4 in silver had disappeared.

Mrs. M. E. Fletcher of 1361 Eleventh avenue complained to the police this morning that a burglar had entered her house through the pantry window and had ransacked the house, taking jewelry valued at $15.

The directors, who have been responsible for urging on the organization of the women's board, of which Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst is honorary president, feel that the women will supply many of the ideas for the artistic adornment of the exposition. Many features will be thought of by women that men would overlook is the position taken by the exposition company, and the aid and suggestions of the new auxiliary board will be welcomed by every one of those associated in the project.

'DEAD' MAN PROVES ONE GOOD JACKASS.

REDDING, Nov. 13. — Coroner John Larkin was called in the night to hold an inquest yesterday morning on a man who had been killed by a train near Kennett. Then this morning came the explanation that the "man" killed had been a jackass.

When the jackass, southbound, overland came into Kennett at 10 o'clock last evening Frank Hope of Missoula, Mont., climbed from underneath the train, where he had been stealing a ride. He was bespattered with blood and debris as the train passed, and he fell from the rails to his death. The engineer remembered that he had struck "something" up the road.

At Redding another bloodstained tramp crawled from underneath the train. He said that his partner must have been killed, for he had disappeared. At daylight the section foreman was sent out to find the body. All he could find was the mangled body of a jackass, so orders to the corner were cancelled.

NEW PAPER PULP IS FOUND BY EXPERTS.

WAUSAU, Wis., Nov. 13. — The fact that a commercial grade of paper can be made from native woods, other than spruce, has been established at the United States Government laboratory here. Experiments have been going on for more than a year. Tests of pulp have just been concluded and are reported to have proved that it is possible to make ground wood from hemlock and jack-pine, and from mixtures of these woods with spruce, produce a pulp of quality high enough for the manufacture of a cheap grade of paper, such as news and wrapping papers. One of the mills of Wisconsin already has commenced to use the mixture of spruce and hemlock for the manufacture of paper. Spruce is scarce and growing more expensive.

FORMER MRS. PLATT AND COACHMAN SPOUSE ARE HAPPY

Couple Coming to the Coast Where Atwater Expects to Start on Flight.

MATTEAWAN, N. Y., Nov. 13. — Impressing upon his interviewer the fact that he was very happy and his wife saying, "Me, too," William B. Atwater, who first secured a position as coachman for Mrs. Lillian Platt, widow of Senator Thomas C. Platt, and then married her, gave out his first interview since their marriage.

Accompanied by the bridegroom, his brother and brother's wife and Mrs. Platt's daughter, the party arrived Saturday night in an automobile and registered at the Holland House. Yesterday a wedding dinner was served at the hotel.

Mrs. Atwater wore a velvet gown and profusion of diamonds and jewelry. Her youthful looking husband had a flannel suit, black tie and soft gray hair, in which stuck a feather.

Atwater said the wife and Mrs. Platt were married at Suffern last Sunday evening by Justice of the Peace Hilton. The plans had been to keep the wedding quiet until they had started for California next Thursday.

"I am going there," he said, "to arrange for a flight across the continent. I have a contract with the Queen Aeroplane Company and expect to start from Los Angeles in May next, and unless I break my neck, I will accomplish the task."

"While we are getting ready Mrs. Atwater and I will occupy her cottage at New Pasadena."

Girl Is Siren

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13. — Lured by a pair of dark eyes, Felipe Uroo of 474 Broadway followed one of the female habitués of the California dance hall, Pacific and Kearny streets, to a lodging house which, he says, is at 1061 Kearny street, and there was assaulted and robbed by a burly thief who was armed with a gun and a knife.

Uroo recovered some time later and found himself $100 poorer. The police are seeking a woman known as Lillian Russell for alleged complicity in the robbery.

Uroo went to the California dance hall Saturday night and there met the dark-haired girl who greeted him pleasantly. Uroo, who recently returned from Mexico, showed a roll of $100 in bills and then the girl invited him out to a rooming house.

According to the victim they went to 1061 Kearny street. As they mounted the steps a big man, with his hat pulled down over his face, stepped out and asked Uroo to hold up his hands. The man hesitated, and received a blow on the head that was followed by several others until he became unconscious. When he recovered, Uroo found that his money had been taken. Ditto the girl. He found Patrolman John Gleason dropping him, who vainly searched the neighborhood.

Still Loves Her

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 13. — "I love her more than words can tell, and I surely will not take the stand to testify against her."

This was the answer of George C. Sherman, rich in city and ranch property, made about six months ago when asked by the judge if he had anything to say to charges filed by his wife in her divorce suit.

Yesterday Sherman had another opportunity to prove his love for his wife. He made a statement in which he said he was suddenly ill and, fearing she was on her deathbed, sent him word that she would like to see him.

Though she had left him and had charged him with many cruelties, Sherman rushed to her bedside. To friends he stated he was not only willing to go to her, but would gladly take her back if she should get well.

Dandruff Is of Germ Origin

By LILLIAN RUSSELL

(Copyright: 1911: By Lillian Russell.)

DE WOLF HOPPER tells a story, with much gusto, of a hypochondriac who imagined that he had only a few months to live, but concluded that he would find out just exactly what ailed him before leaving for the other shore. With elaborate farewells to all his friends whom he never expected to see again, he left Germany to consult a famous specialist. After a thorough diagnosis, which took up the greater part of three days, the physician declared that he would tell him exactly what was the matter with him the next day.

The man was greatly perturbed and said: "Doctor, I am no coward; I know we all must die; and while I know that my case is hopeless, I thought possibly it might help some other poor man in the future to have it studied carefully by as eminent a practitioner as you. I should like you to tell me just exactly what is the matter with me and don't mince matters at all when I come tomorrow."

When he made his appearance the doctor said: "Well, I look you over carefully, and I find that your heart, your lungs, your liver are all right; your circulation—it seems normal; and your nerves seem to be pretty quiet." The man was just starting away, happy and much surprised, when the doctor said: "But—I find," the patient turned pale—"that you have dandruff."

A great many people have been writing to me lately that they have dandruff and most of them seem to imagine that it is an incurable trouble, but it is not. Neither is it necessary, as some have intimated, that a healthy head should have more or less dandruff. The latest physicians declare that dandruff is of germ origin, and consequently there is nothing better for this trouble than the green soap shampoo. Green soap, you know, is not green, but a pure liquid yellow soap made with oil.

If one has allowed her head to become covered with dandruff I advise wetting the roots and scalp with olive oil, allowing it to stay on until the next morning, when you wash thoroughly with the green soap lotion. Be sure to rinse out all the soap, as nothing is so hurtful to the hair as soap that is left in from one washing to another.

Rub the scalp nightly with a flannel cloth to make the circulation equable all over the head and wash your hair every ten days for the first two months; after that, once in two weeks is often enough.

Remember—That nothing is as bad as you think it is; even dandruff can be cured.

Coffee sours the skin, sweets bring out pimples, and rich foods make the pores large and the skin greasy. Take plenty of outdoor exercise and plenty of sleep. Every night apply a good cold cream and massage it into the skin for about five minutes, then rub what is left off with a soft cloth. GOMPER'S REVIEWS PRESENT STATUS OF LABOR

LEGISLATION THAT IS NOW WANTED

President of American Federation Outlines Plans of Organized Labor.

Reiterates Belief in Innocence of McNamara Brothers, Now on Trial.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 13.—President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor in his report submitted today to the delegates of the thirty-first annual convention, predicted great changes in American methods of government, particularly with regard to political parties. He gave to the referendum, initiative and the recall the unqualified endorsement of organized labor and declared that a real representative democracy had never been known in the United States because of the general absence of those provisions.

"This semi-deflection of judges," he said in defense of his endorsement, "this sanctimonious cant about 'moral rule,' some of which was in President Taft's message vetoing the Arizona statehood bill, is more driveling."

President Gompers' report, which covers sixty closely printed pages and would make more than thirty columns in a newspaper, says it leaves many subjects untouched or inadequately presented.

In the main, the report declared for, and says organized labor demands, ORGANIZED LABOR'S DEMANDS.

The initiative, the referendum and the recall.

Passage of the so-called anti-injunction bills at the next session of Congress.

Restriction of immigration.

Further restriction of convict labor.

Legislation to relieve civil service employees from the restrictions of the merit system.

Uniform laws for the protection of life and health in the factory buildings.

A Department of Labor in the federal government.

Employers' liability and workmen's compensation acts throughout the states.

Severe arraignment is made of the so-called scientific management or efficiency systems.

With its membership now more than 1,700,000, the great "C" of labor, and its financial condition excellent, the organization often called the greatest altruistic institution of the times, enters the thirty-first year of its work.

"Despite all opposition, the most resilient kind, the American labor movement grows and thrives; its beneficent influence for the common uplift of labor and of all our people extends to all fields of useful activity and is becoming more generally recognized."

Which labor holds within its grasp is understood by our opponents perhaps better than many of the tollers. The fact is that labor's opponents, like the Tories of the past, are still with us, still with us, are afraid to trust the people.

Mr. Gompers refers very briefly to the contempt court proceedings against Vice-President John Mitchell, Secretary Morrison and others, which are still pending before the courts of the District of Columbia.

REFERENCE TO McNAMARAS.

The McNamara case, however, is taken up as some of the most fully reviewed.

President Gompers expresses his faith in the innocence of the men now on trial at Los Angeles for alleged dynamiting outrages and denounces in unmeasured terms their removal from Indiana to California.

"The Wilson bill, now pending in Congress, a so-called anti-injunction measure, which has the support of labor, is warmly endorsed."

To the subject of immigration, much of the report is addressed. Several plans are proposed for bringing the migratory labor into the ranks of organized labor.

Further restriction of immigration is deemed necessary and schemes of distribution of immigrants are discussed.

"The early completion of the Panama canal," he said, "will not only bring about a total change in the labor situation of the Pacific coast, both internally and with relation to other countries."

The Federation's fight for employers' liability and workmen's compensation laws, progressive legislation is reported from several states, including California.

COMMENTS BUREAU OF MINES.

The work of the United States Bureau of Mines in establishing mine rescue stations through the coal regions and the campaign of education which the bureau has been carrying on among miners, is warmly commended.

The report endorses the bill introduced at the last congress by Representative Sulzer of New York, creating a Department of Labor in the Federal government.

Gompers makes an appeal for better laws to protect life and health in factory

MILLS COLLEGE STUDENTS TO PRESENT TWO COMEDIES

Scene from "The Romancers" to be presented Friday night at Mills College. Sylvett (Joyce Lobner) seated, listening to Percinet (Hazel Lathrop).

The students of Mills College will present two comedies entitled "The Romancers" and "The Dark Lady of the Sonnets" next Friday evening, November 17, in their spacious auditorium. Preparations for the forthcoming entertainment have been under way for the past two months, and judging from the showings made by the student thespians, a successful affair should be presented for their friends.

"The Romancers" is a three-act comedy which portrays the efforts of two old men, who are neighbors to effect a marriage between their children, one a romantic son and the other an equally romantic girl. An abduction of the girl follows, and when she is finally rescued by her lover a barrel of gunpowder is exploded, which eventually leads to the play ending with happiness for all concerned.

"The Dark Lady of the Sonnets" is a humorous one-act sketch, which includes Mildred Smith as Queen Elizabeth, Maude Ross as the Dark Lady, Eleanor Jones as Shakespeare, Ruth Wood as the Guardmaster, and court ladies and gentlemen.

HEALTH BOARD SEEKS TO END STRIKE

40,000 Cartloads of Rotting Refuse Accumulate in New York.

Yesterday's Riots Most Serious Police Have Had to Contend With.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—If the garbage gatherers' strike is not broken today the health department will step in to save New York from the evil effects of some 40,000 cartloads of refuse that have accumulated since the men who drive the street cleaning department's wagons quit work because they objected to nine hours.

Even if the strike and their friends have kept professional strike-breakers from accepting the high wages the city offers for substitutes. Actually the health department intervened today when its men took out several hundred barrels of disinfectant to sprinkle on the piles of rotting garbage in the poorer and more thickly populated districts.

Although yesterday's riots were the most extensive the police have had to cope with since the strike began, there were no casualties and few hospital cases, and the number of arrests has been remarkably small.

THE GRAND JURY MEETS A 'FACER'

Committee That Investigated "Texas Tommy" Can't Agree on Dance.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The grand jury has met a facer in the "Texas Tommy" case, the sinuous dance with a "glide, kick and wiggle," which from its origin in the dance halls of the Barbary coast, is finding favor in the downtown cafes, and the four members of that body, appointed as a special committee to investigate the dance, have been unable to agree as to its propriety or impropriety and have been forced to ask for a fifth man to act as arbitrator, he to be chosen later.

The committee stands two to two, Foreman Frantz and Grand Jurors Lazzari for the "Texas Tommy," and Secretary Plover and Grand Juror Holland against. Corporal Duffy and Detective Freeli, who accompanied the committee on its tour of inquiry and investigation, refused to be drawn into the controversy, although requested to do so by the tangled grand jurors.

The investigation was inspired by a letter to the grand jury from a ministerial agent protesting against the dance on the ground of immorality.

Tomorrow night at the grand jury rooms in the Hewes building, the matter will be threshed out before the other 15 members of the grand jury. An arbitrator may be appointed to settle it, or the jurors will decide to view and pass upon the dance.

EAST IS SWEEP BY COLD WAVE

Jack Frost Rides in Teeth of Gale Along the Atlantic Seaboard.

From 10 to 20 Below Zero Is Registered in Vicinity of Duluth.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—The cold wave that chased into the Atlantic some of the balmiest Indian summer weather New York ever has enjoyed tightened its grip today and sent the mercury down to 24 degrees below zero. This minimum record at 8 o'clock this morning meant a fall of 44 degrees since 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

The gale on which the frigid weather rode into town continued today at 38 miles an hour. Few small boats ventured to sea outside New York harbor and reports of marine disasters are expected. The high winds have crippled wire service, and the telegraph lines to the west are doing business under great difficulty.

COLD CLAIMS VICTIM.

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—The cold weather claimed another victim here today, making the third since the winter weather struck Chicago Saturday night. William Johnson, 49 years of age, was found unconscious from the cold on a North Side street and died in a police ambulance while being taken to a hospital.

14 BELOW AT DULUTH.

DULUTH, Nov. 13.—Ten to 14 below zero and 15 to 20 below on the ranges tells the story of today's weather in this section. The cold in the north woods is intense.

HANGARS UNROOFED.

MINNEAPOLIS, N. Y., Nov. 13.—All seventeen of the hangars at the aerodrome here, suffered more or less damage in the gale last night, several of them being unroofed. Four aeroplanes were wrecked and one member of the aviation colony was slightly injured by flying timber.

YACHT IS MISSING.

DULUTH, Nov. 13.—No word has been received of the yacht Alvin, which is more than 35 hours overdue at the "Soo." She is a staunch steam-driven vessel, however, and it is believed she can ride out the storm.

CLEMENT RUST HOME AT PIEDMONT BURGLARIZED

PIEDMONT, Nov. 13. — The Clement

Rust home on Mesa avenue was burglarized, presumably some time during Thursday, for at 6 o'clock on that day the burglar discovered that the watch had been discovered in the morning. The watch was not discovered until Saturday, when Mrs. Rust, dressing to go to town, searched in vain for a certain brooch that she had investigated the night before. All her jewelry save her watch, which was monogrammed, had been taken. Her mother's room had also been overhauled and jewelry taken. The silverware was not touched. As yet there is no sign to be seen.

ALMONDS BRING HIGHER PRICES

Efforts of Growers Result in Securing Record Figures for Season's Crop.

OAKLEY, Nov. 13. — Higher prices for the almond crop than were ever before realized were secured this year as a result of the efforts of the Eastern Conical Costa Almond Growers' Association, which was recently formed to be of benefit to the local growers.

The almonds, which were of unusually fine grade, have all been sold and shipped. A similar association has been formed in Concord, where the growers also are receiving better prices than in any previous Football has reached its zenithal stage. In the middle west, in fact, the week end may see the championship of the "big eight" in that section decided, and also may see the championship of the "big four" in the east claimed. For the responsibility of the "big four" in the east will also likely be slanted as decided if Princeton wins from Yale this Saturday, as the Tigers already have taken a game from Harvard and have not met defeat this season. Princeton, however, has beaten Dartmouth mouth, however, has been beaten in the east margins, and the Tigers have twice lost to Princeton by Lehigh and Navy.

For these reasons, the following (all against teams which Princeton has not met). Old Eli already is favorite for the championship, but may meet defeat by the Army, but her oldest rival, Harvard, twice has been beaten by both Princeton and Yale. Princeton, however, has been eliminated by three defeats.

In the tabulation which follows the record of the teams in the "big eight" this year presents a wholly clear picture.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 19.—The evil spirit of gambling is destined to overthrow football as a great national sport within ten years, according to the Rev. J. W. H. Hays, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church here. Speaking from his pulpit last night to an audience composed largely of Yale men, he said: "Of the spirit of gambling which has characterized and destroyed the annual of college sports continues to increase within the next five years as it has in the past five years, I venture to predict that within ten years there will be no Yale-Harvard football games."

shot this afternoon when he made a score of 147 with the pistol and a 147 range in the regular monthly medal shoot of the Shell Mound Pistol and Rifle Club. The former record was 480. German's big mark will not be recognized as official, however, as the score was not made on clean targets.

German, a member of the German member of many of the clubs above, made the best score in the prize shoot of the San Francisco Turner schutzen. Streck made a 147 with the rifle and 75 with the rifle at 200 yards range.

FIVE PLAYERS ARE LEFT IN TENNIS

OAKLEY, Nov. 13. — Higher prices for the almond crop than were ever before realized were secured this year as a result of the efforts of the Eastern and Costa Almond Growers' Association, which was recently formed to be of benefit to the local growers.

Board of Health is to take up the official inspection of the county's milk supply. This is the result of a long campaign which has been going on for some time under the direction of Inspector Dockery and his assistants. The report of Dockery's reports there is plenty of room for improvement. Local inspectors will be instructed to pay special attention to the quality of milk shipped to San Francisco and to demand and to report all insanitary dairies. The health of the dairy cattle will also be placed in charge of the inspectors. Milk from a sick animal will not be allowed to be placed on sale. The most important work will begin this work within a few days.

Miss A. Mayne rendered the waltz songs from "Romeo and Juliet." The singer was accompanied by Mrs. George Calfee.

Mrs. C. B. Crane was hostess of the occasion. The program was preceded by a short business session, presided over by Mrs. George Cowie. The gathering was held in the Masonic Temple building.

Sheriff R. R. Veale and his deputies. Veale believes the attempt was made by a gang which hoped to plunder the town while the residents were at the fire. He and his men have been scouring the hills and questioning all suspicious characters. The firebugs soaked sacks in coal oil, piled them behind the building, then touched a match to them. The fire was discovered by neighbors in time to prevent the fire from spreading.

WEITH SAILED ON GOOD SHIP 'PRINT'

Launch Hand Has Night Ride on Newspapers That Is Thrilling, Indeed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Flooding on a pile of papers, Ben Weith, a launch hand, had a chilly ride on the estuary at eight o'clock Saturday night, and he does not want any more navigating on the news sheets. Weith was seated on the load of Sunday morning newspapers being dispatched to the other side of the bay on the Crowley launch No. 5.

Muffled in an overcoat, he was enjoying the exhilarating voyage when suddenly, after the launch had entered the creek, he found himself no longer on the cozy cushioned launch. He was seated on the papers, the stern lights of the launch moved away into the night, and he heard the chug-chug of the engine growing fainter.

Loudly he cried as the chill blasts of midnight cut into his marrow and the black waters of the estuary slushed upon his strange craft.

About this time Harry Marshall, the launch engineer, who had been busy over his oil cups, looked back into the cockpit and was amazed to see nothing of the great pile of papers and his companion.

He put about and reached Weith just as the latter's strange paper ship was about to take the long dive. The load had been washed on to the launch, and when she hit a swell in the creek Weith and the papers went by the board. The young man, who resides at 1808 Phillips street, was taken to the Harbor emergency hospital and treated for submersion.

FOLSOM MAY BE PLACED UNDER INVESTIGATION

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 13.—Complaints received at the Governor's office from former convicts and others charging cruelty and inefficiency at Folsom prison are likely to be followed by an official investigation of conditions there. While Governor Johnson is silent regarding the method to be used, it is known that Folsom Director Dennis Duffy has had conferences with the Governor regarding the charges.

According to statements made by former convicts, the punishment at Folsom is severe.

Until a few weeks ago the barbarous "hook" method of punishment was in use. This consisted of tying a prisoner's hands and then suspending him by a hook until his toes barely touched the floor.

The prison directors a few weeks ago issued an order abolishing this practice.

DIES FROM EXCITEMENT

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 13.—Rev. H. L. Nave, pastor of a small Presbyterian church at Montaville, died at the Gypsy Smith revival meeting yesterday from heart failure, brought on by excitement. Rev. Mr. Nave had been in his usual good health just before the meeting. He took a very fervent interest in the present revival series and was keyed up to a high pitch of excitement when suddenly, while the evangelist was exhorting, he fell over in his seat and expired.

SHAKESPEARE MAKES BOW TO VAUDEVILLE AT THE ORPHEUM

HOWARD and NORTH, in "Back to Wellington," one of the hits at the Oakland Orpheum.

(By LEO LEVY.)

To Shakespeare now we turn attention, and there is a deal to record in brief. The first pretensions attempt to introduce the master play builder to a vaudeville audience was made yesterday at the Oakland Orpheum. It quickly proved two things: that variety-goers are not more than a per cent silly schoolboys; that a vaudeville gathering is quite as ready to welcome the sublime as to gloat over the foolish.

Miss Ursula Faucitt, late leading woman of Benson's English Shakespearean company, was entrusted with the task of sounding the public. She succeeded in bringing appreciation to an audience that was not more than a per cent silly schoolboys; that a vaudeville gathering is quite as ready to welcome the sublime as to gloat over the foolish.

Summing up the whole affair, it was a decided success from an attendance standpoint, but the French Opera company need fear no serious opposition because of the Ishi concerts.

CAR REPAIRER BEATEN BY THREE ENEMIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—As he was leaving the Southern Pacific Railroad depot at Fourth and Townsend streets early yesterday morning, Arthur Marshall, employed as a car repairer, was attacked by three men who without giving him any chance to defend himself, beat Marshall savagely and then fled just as two policemen ran to the scene.

Marshall has been working in the yards at Sixteenth and Kentucky streets, and says, frequently has been threatened. He went downtown on a freight train and left the depot preparatory to going home, when three men approached and jostled him. Marshall tried to avoid a conflict, but one of the men suddenly struck him a fierce blow on the jaw that sent Marshall to the ground. When he arose all three joined in the attack.

Patrolmen McCarthy and Nolan heard Marshall shout for help and ran to the scene of the affray and the assailants took to their heels. The patrolmen searched the neighborhood for them without success.

FUNERAL OF TRIPLETT TO BE HELD IN STATE

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—The body of Elias D. Triplett, who died of pneumonia, has been taken to Salinas, Cal., where the funeral will be held Wednesday. Mrs. J. Monroe of Mundare, Alberta, and Mrs. F. P. Purcell of Seattle, daughters of the deceased, are accompanying it.

Triplett was a resident of Seattle for twenty years, coming here from Santa Barbara.

TOWERMAN PREVENTS COLLISION IN KANSAS

OSAGE CITY, Kan., Nov. 13.—Two engines and the mail and baggage cars of Santa Fe train No. 17 were sent into the ditch here at 5 o'clock yesterday morning when the towerman at the Santa Fe Missouri Pacific crossing threw the derail switch to prevent the train crashing into a Missouri Pacific freight train which was on the crossing at the time.

The lead engine of the Santa Fe train was badly damaged, but no one was injured.

COATS GONE, LOCK NO USE.
SANTA FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Alfred Lillienfeld, a clothier, evidently believes in the adage that "it is no use locking the barn door after the horse is gone." Early yesterday morning he was called to the telephone by Policeman W. J. Cavanaugh who informed him that a showcase in front of his store at Post and Kearny streets had been broken open. "Did they get the overcoats?" Lillienfeld replied sleepily. "Sure they did," replied the policeman. "Then it's no use my coming down there this cold morning," and Lillienfeld returned to bed.

GUNBOAT NAMED SACRAMENTO.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—California's capital has been honored by the United States navy giving the new gunboat, No. 19, the name of Sacramento. Four new collars now being made have been named Proteus, Nervous, Oregon and Jason. A new river gunboat will be called the Monocacy.

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., "Radio" New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Many Oakland people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when most all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly relieved by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

J. A. Osterdock, proprietor of Alameda Rug Works and Carpet Cleaning Co., 2008 Everett street, Alameda, Calif., whose work has been given the highest approval by many patrons, has to say regarding Doan's Kidney Pills: "They are the best of everything and I can recommend them without the slightest hesitation. Their use in our family has given entire satisfaction. They did their work well in other words, lived up to representation. Knowing Doan's Kidney Pills to be an effective kidney medicine, I have advised their use on many occasions."

Many Oakland people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when most all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly relieved by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. The following statement leaves no ground for doubt.

J. A. Osterdock, proprietor of Alameda Rug Works and Carpet Cleaning Co., 2008 Everett street, Alameda, Calif., whose work has been given the highest approval by many patrons, has to say regarding Doan's Kidney Pills: "They are the best of everything and I can recommend them without the slightest hesitation. Their use in our family has given entire satisfaction. They did their work well in other words, lived up to representation. Knowing Doan's Kidney Pills to be an effective kidney medicine, I have advised their use on many occasions."

SHAKESPEARE MAKES BOW TO VAUDEVILLE AT THE ORPHEUM

HOWARD and NORTH, in "Back to Wellington," one of the hits at the Oakland Orpheum.

(By LEO LEVY.)

To Shakespeare now we turn attention, and there is a deal to record in brief. The first pretensions attempt to introduce the master play builder to a vaudeville audience was made yesterday at the Oakland Orpheum. It quickly proved two things: that variety-goers are not more than a per cent silly schoolboys; that a vaudeville gathering is quite as ready to welcome the sublime as to gloat over the foolish.

Summing up the whole affair, it was a decided success from an attendance standpoint, but the French Opera company need fear no serious opposition because of the Ishi concerts.

CAR REPAIRER BEATEN BY THREE ENEMIES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—As he was leaving the Southern Pacific Railroad depot at Fourth and Townsend streets early yesterday morning, Arthur Marshall, employed as a car repairer, was attacked by three men who without giving him any chance to defend himself, beat Marshall savagely and then fled just as two policemen ran to the scene.

Marshall has been working in the yards at Sixteenth and Kentucky streets, and says, frequently has been threatened. He went downtown on a freight train and left the depot preparatory to going home, when three men approached and jostled him. Marshall tried to avoid a conflict, but one of the men suddenly struck him a fierce blow on the jaw that sent Marshall to the ground. When he arose all three joined in the attack.

Patrolmen McCarthy and Nolan heard Marshall shout for help and ran to the scene of the affray and the assailants took to their heels. The patrolmen searched the neighborhood for them without success.

FUNERAL OF TRIPLETT TO BE HELD IN STATE

SEATTLE, Nov. 13.—The body of Elias D. Triplett, who died of pneumonia, has been taken to Salinas, Cal., where the funeral will be held Wednesday. Mrs. J. Monroe of Mundare, Alberta, and Mrs. F. P. Purcell of Seattle, daughters of the deceased, are accompanying it.

Triplett was a resident of Seattle for twenty years, coming here from Santa Barbara.

TOWERMAN PREVENTS COLLISION IN KANSAS

OSAGE CITY, Kan., Nov. 13.—Two engines and the mail and baggage cars of Santa Fe train No. 17 were sent into the ditch here at 5 o'clock yesterday morning when the towerman at the Santa Fe Missouri Pacific crossing threw the derail switch to prevent the train crashing into a Missouri Pacific freight train which was on the crossing at the time.

The lead engine of the Santa Fe train was badly damaged, but no one was injured.

COATS GONE, LOCK NO USE.

SANTA FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—Alfred Lillienfeld, a clothier, evidently believes in the adage that "it is no use locking the barn door after the horse is gone." Early yesterday morning he was called to the telephone by Policeman W. J. Cavanaugh who informed him that a showcase in front of his store at Post and Kearny streets had been broken open. "Did they get the overcoats?" Lillienfeld replied sleepily. "Sure they did," replied the policeman. "Then it's no use my coming down there this cold morning," and Lillienfeld returned to bed.
